19th ANNUAL PRO VIDEO SHOW, MARCH 20th & 21st

NORWOOD, MA - If you earn your keep by shooting professional video, plan on attending THE CAMERA COMPANY'S 19th ANNUAL PRO VIDEO SHOW, Friday and Saturday, March 20th and 21st at the DEDHAM HOLIDAY INN & CONFERENCE CENTER, 55 Ariadne Road, Dedham, MA. Exhibit hours are 9-7 on Friday, March 20th, and 9-5 on Saturday, March 21st. Seminar hours are 9-9, Friday and 9-5 on Saturday. The hotel is easy to find, right at the junction of Route 1 and 128, Exit 15A. Admission to exhibits, manufacturer seminars and parking is free of charge.

The show is geared to those working in the broadcast, cable, commercial, government, educational and public access television industry, although anyone with an interest, is welcome.

Throughout its history, the show has stressed the importance of education. Free seminars this year include those offered by: Sony Broadcast, Apple, JVC Professional, Panasonic Broadcast, Sennheiser, Tightrope Media Systems, Leightronix, Broadcast Pix, just to mention a few.

19TH ANNUAL PRO VIDEO SHOW
Holiday Inn Dedham - Dedham, MA

THE CAMERA COMPANY

Fri - Sat
MARCH
20-21

A special feature of this year's show are workshops co-sponsored by the BOSTON FINAL CUT PRO USER GROUP (BOSFCPUG) and FOCAL PRESS, with presentations by best-selling Focal Press authors, Richard Harrington, Anthony Artis and Rick Young. There's a very modest charge for these offerings. Space is limited, so register early-either online at www.cameraco.com/category-s/211.htm or by calling 781-769-7810 (toll free, outside MA 866-769-0210).

Also offered are workshops by award-winning filmmaker and educator David Tames, Director of Photography, Tom Musto and "video biographer" Hal Slifer

DRAMATIC SAVINGS...OUR BEST PRICING OF THE YEAR!!!

Several new products will receive their debut at this show, (yes, even before that big annual April event in Las Vegas), including JVC's much-anticipated direct to Apple Final Cut Pro, solid-state, file-based recording cameras,

GY-HM700 and GY-HM100U as well as Panasonic's AG-HPX300 AVC-I capable, P2HD 3-MOS camcorder. Sony and Canon will show off their latest cameras, too.

Last but not least, this is the only exclusively pro video selling show in New England. There are some really serious bargains, so don't just come prepared to look.
